

THE BLESSING OF SHALOM

May you be whole in body, soul, and spirit, increasingly wise, durable, stable people of integrity, living in harmony with God's will and purpose for your lives.

May His Peace be your covering, and your hearts know His fullness.

By His Mighty power may you know victory over every enemy.

May he bring you the deepest desires of your heart, revealing to you that He is the One you long for.

May you know the healing power of His presence.

May you experience the restoration of broken relationships, an end to alienation and discord.

Out of His sufficient, limitless resources may every need you face be met.

May His Covenant Promises be fulfilled in you and all with whom He gives you influence.

Bringing you all the greatest measure of contentment...

The deepest satisfaction your hearts can possibly know:

REST & LOVE & JOY

Sar Shalom—The Prince of Prince.
